

WALT, SELLING WHISKY WITH CLOTHES, PAYS HEAVY PENALTY

VIRGINIA, April 23.—Ben Walt, Virginia clothing dealer who was found guilty of having sold liquor illegally, was sentenced by Judge Edward Freeman to 30 days in the Duluth county jail and fined $100 as additional penalty. He was taken to Duluth this afternoon.

This is the first conviction obtained for illegal selling of liquor, since the county and city were voted dry, March 15.
