

GIVES RECITAL

FRANCES ALTA HALLOCK.

Miss Frances Alta Hallock, one of Duluth's promising young singers, gave a very delightful lecture recital yesterday for the Saturday Musicale club of Cloquet. Miss Hallock opened the program with an interesting lecture on the different schools in Russia and America. The following numbers were given as examples of the work done in these schools: "Ah, Sad Indeed My Heart" (Tschalkowsky); "Lullaby," from the opera "Herold" (Napravink); "Two Folk Songs of Little Russia" (arranged by Zimbalist); "Song of India" (Rorsekow); "Look, Pretty Maiden" (Dargomizsky); "Along Life's Way" (Louis Victor Saar); "Thy Beaming Eyes" (MacDowell); "Sylvia" (Oley Speaks); "Silk Rose" (Sidney Homer); "Dearest" (Sidney Homer); "Les Silhouettes" (John Carpenter); "Some Happy Day" (Louis Victor Saar).

Mrs. C. B. McDonald was at the piano. Following the program there was a reception.
