

FRANKLINS KEEP

SLAMMING BALL

Franklin playground team opened its league season yesterday by defeating the Washburn team by a 19-to-4 score at the latter's grounds. The victory proved to be rather expensive for the Hill Top crew as Oscar Cohen the star little backstop will be out of the game for several weeks because of a injury he received when a bat struck him on one of his hands.

For a while it, looked as though the Washburn nine were going to give the Franklin crew a battle. Up to the seventh inning the score was 4 to 4. In the "lucky" seventh the Franklins started to land on the ball and before the game ended the sluggers had gathered 15 runs.

Score: R. H. E.
Franklin .....211000753—19 21 3
Washburn ....010100020—4 4 6
Batteries—Oswald and Cohen and Bennett; Peters and Angelo.

Del Pratt fits in nicely in the Yankees' infield. The former Brownie, with Pipp, Peckinpaugh and Baker, form about as nifty an inner works as can be found in the big yard.
