

VIRGINIA WOMEN HURT WHEN AUTO ENTERS DITCH

VIRGINIA, June 9.—Four Virginia women returning by automobile from Duluth last night were slightly injured when their car struck a deep rut and skidded into a ditch, throwing out all the occupants. The mishap occurred on the Miller trunk road 22 miles from Duluth.

In the party were Mrs. Carl Shapiro, driver of the machine; Mrs. John Holquist, Mrs. Morris Baer and Miss Jeanette Baer. They were taken to a hospital in Duluth, where their injuries were given first aid, and all four were able to return to Virginia today.
