

CITIZENSHIP IS GIVEN EIGHTEEN

Judge Page Morris Presides at Federal Court Hearing; Many Fail to Appear.

Eighteen were admitted to citizenship by Judge Page Morris in federal court yesterday. Eleven of the men were 'Duluthians. Following their renunciation of all foreign allegiance the men were granted their citizenship papers by the clerk of court.

Many of those who were to have appeared yesterday did not appear and their cases were continued until November. Nationalities represented were Swedish, Norwegian, Russian, Turkish and English.

The following are the men who were granted their second papers yesterday: John Howard Nelson, Buyck township, St. Louis county; John Wesley Singleton, Duluth; James Albert Spindler, Duluth; John Fieldsby Nelson, Duluth; Carlo Jannetta, Keewatin, Minn.; Leonard Charles Husband, Duluth; Fredrick Peterson Bergmarker, Duluth; Carl Victor Swenson, Duluth; Carl Fritjof Christianson, Duluth; Joseph Landry, Duluth; Andrew Kuplainen, Tolmi, Minn.; Johannes Olsen Berwick, Little Marais, Minn.; Jacob Crystal, Duluth; Joseph Bayard, Lakewood, Minn.; Richard Walter Silvester Flewell, Duluth; Matti Wintori Wehka, Cloquet, Minn.; Mikal Andrew Lauritzen, Sugar Loaf, Minn., and Elias Thomas George, Duluth.