

EVELETH MERCHANT FILES FOR SCHOOL BOARD PLACE

EVELETH, July 5.—The first man to file as a candidate for the board of education here is Sam Ellis, merchant. The election will be held on Saturday, July 20.

Two directors will be elected for a term of two years and one director will be elected for a term of one year. Terms of A. Rohrer, Thomas Davey and James Robb expire this year. None of them have filed for re-election. Filings close on Monday.
