

ST. PAUL ATHLETE IS RECOVERING IN FRANCE

ST. PAUL, Aug. 10.—Max Bernstein, a local athlete who was gassed in France, is rapidly recovering, according to a letter received here.

Two years' ago Bernstein and a chum, Leon Blehart, walked from St. Paul to San Francisco. They were Boy Scouts then and they made the journey to advertise St. Paul. When the war broke out Bernstein and Blehart enlisted. The former joined the marines and Blehart the navy.
