

AUTO OWNERS RALLY TO AID OF STAMP SALES IN DULUTH

List Gets Longer Each Day—Committee Expects Every Owner to Be Enrolled.

The list of auto stamp pledge owners gets longer each day, and each day the committee feels more sure that everyone of the 3,400 automobile owners of Duluth will carry a label before the campaign is ended.

"And nobody kicks," is the thing that seems to please the workers hugely. "It's a snap working with people with the Duluth spirit," said one member of the committee yesterday.

Following is the list today: B. W. Hintz, G. W. Lorence, Walter W. Bowe, Bowe-Burke Mining company, Abraham Pekanen, H. M. Eyer, Emanuel A. Swannstrom, Coleman F. Naughton, Henry H. Myers, Siegel Hardware company, L. B. Arnold, H. S. Wenger, Mark Stewart, Mrs. E. T. Madden, E. J. Wenzel, John F. Thompson, Alex MacGillivray, Niels Nissen, Oliver J. Pederson, Walter J. Sheehy, W. P. Mars, Charles Chartier, Earl E. Hunner, Floyd P. Latier, Asa T. Lyons, L. S. Sours, Harold Junck, Frank Hupper, Sam Frederickson, B. Sher, John Nordquist, Dr. C. H. Schroeder, Hanford Construction company, Ruth A. Rogers, Charles N. Pace, Esther Wright, Ben Finch, Mason M. Forbes, George A. Burns, C. E. Kremer, C. B. Nunan, James A. Fleming, P. M. Parnow, John Gajewski, Harold C. Hall, R. E. Mace, Frank L. Magle, Fred Koski, George Esson, R. B. Loring, Peerless Laundry, Edward Regelsberger, G. A. M. Mahler & Co., John Hogan & Co., O. Weinman, William K. Bagley, Joe Johnson, Ole Dahl, Michael Canning, Guy H. Moore, Stanley Mohelskie, David A. Tweet.
