

DULUTHIAN BELIEVED TO BE ON NORTHERN PACIFIC TRANSPORT

Mrs. W. C. Oxman, 1006 East Sixth street, is awaiting a message from her brother, Sergt. I. Oreckovsky of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth infantry, who called from France on Christmas day.

She believes that he was on the Northern Pacific transport, which is around near New York.
