Wolfe-Coddon Wedding.

One of the most interesting events of the season took place at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 4th, when Miss Jessie Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meier Wolf, Mason City, Iowa, and Charles Coddon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Coddon, were united in marriage, the ceremony taking place at the K. of P. hall, Mason City. The bridal march was played by Miss Hazel Griffith, and, preceding the ceremony, Mr. Lou Cohen, cousin of the bride, sang several wedding selections. Miss Jessie Cohen was the bride's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Sylvia Perowsky, Sarah Green and Lillian Dress of Des Moines, and Miss Solly Cohen of Superior, Wisconsin. The groomsmen were Nathan Coddon, best man; Menk Coddon, Lou Wolfe, Nathan Coddon and Samuel Coddon. The flower girls were Florence Lieberman and Ferne Coddon.

OLD HOME PURIM BALL TO DRAW OUT-OF-TOWN PEOPLE.

Probably one of the features of the annual Purim ball of the Jewish Home for the Aged, which takes place on Monday evening, March 17th, at the Masonic Temple, at 8:30 o'clock, will be the large number of out-of-town people that will be present. The committee has made a special effort to interest the merchants from the country to attend the Purim ball as an annual visit to the city, and the response has been most hearty. Good music and other features prepared by the committee assure the success of the affair.

Temple Aaron Notes.

The festival of Purim will be inaugurated at the Temple of Aaron with two Purim sermons. On Friday evening, March 14, at 8 p. m., the subject of Rabbi Kleinman's address will be "Some Modern Hamans," and on Saturday morning, March 15, at 9 o'clock, his subject will be "Remember What Amalek Did."

Purim services with the reading of the Megillah will be conducted on Saturday evening at 7 p. m. Additional Purim service will be held on Sunday morning, March 16, at 8 o'clock.

On Sunday afternoon, March 16, at 2 p. m., the children of the Temple of Aaron will give their Purim mask celebration. A program consisting of the following numbers will be given: A Jazz band, directed by Mr. D. Nahinsky; selections by the Glee club, which is under the direction of Miss Lillian Neidorf; a recitation, "Mordecai's Prayer," by Gertrude Lechman; a vocal solo by Master William Charme; stereopticon Purim lecture by Rabbi Kleinman; a recitation in Yiddish, by Alice Greenberg; violin solo, by Master D. Horwitz, and a tableau, "The Musicians," coached by Miss Lillian Neidorf; a pianologue by Ruth Adelstein, accompanied by Sylvia Adelstein, and a play, "Casting of Lots," coached by Miss Katherine Neidorf. The following children will participate: Mildred Goldberg, Phyllis Grosby, Herman Gross-
