

Parties Given For Duluth Bride

Miss Esther Gomberg, whose marriage to Dr. Charles E. Goodman of Virginia, Minn., was an event of Friday at the Statler hotel in Detroit, was honored at a number of teas and parties in New York before she left for Michigan. Miss Alice Wetzler of Duluth entertained at a tea at the village store in Greenwich village on Saturday preceding the wedding. Miss Jeannette Gomberg, sister of the bride, who is doing war work in New York, entertained at dinner Monday at the Hotel Endicott.

Col. Walter Irving, a well known song writer, entertained at dinner Friday at the Claridge hotel, and Mrs. Berl, an aunt of Miss Gomberg's, entertained six guests at dinner at Rockaway park. Mrs. Aronheim of Detroit, an aunt of the bride, gave a prenuptial dinner at which covers were laid for 20. Mrs. William Gomberg, the bride's mother, and Ephraim Gomberg, her brother, are in Detroit.
