

NIGHT SCHOOLS OFFER ENGLISH TO ALIENS

HIBBING, Sept. 15.—Night school opened tonight in the Lincoln high school building and in as many location schools as there is sufficient demand. Courses were offered in all the high school subjects and in bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, woodwork, forging, mechanical drawing, electrical work, sewing, cooking, millinery, swimming, gymnasium work.

Aliens will be offered instruction in the English language.

Because the attendance at the parochial school exceeded all expectations, a new room has been added to the present school building. The total enrollment is now 560. Sister Bernadine, in charge, announces two additional teachers have been obtained.

In the public schools, the senior class officers have been named as follows: President, Clarence Kleffman; vice president, Helmer Frankson; secretary treasurer, Thomas Congdon, and class advisors, B. Beall and Miss D. Fluke.

The students' athletic committee of the Junior college has named these officers: President, Everett Pingree; vice president, L. Roe; secretary treasurer, James Darlington; coach, H. C. Leyman.

New students at the Junior college this year are: Loretta McNamara, Marquette, Mich.; Dennis Murphy, Hugo Nemala, John Ryan, Nathan Edelson and Michael Stefanisch, who is from Buhl.

High school attendance figures this year surpassed any year in the school's history. The enrollment follows: Seniors, 83; juniors, 91; sophomores, 157 and freshmen 171 and the seventh, 198.
