

Duluthians Pledged to Greek Societies at "U"

(News Tribune Special.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 20.—After two weeks of open house parties and rushing parties, sororities and fraternities of the University of Minnesota have pledged 150 and 100 students respectively.

The Duluthians pledged and the secret letter house to which they are pledged are Margaret Walker, Alpha Gamma Delta; Cordelia Collins, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Stanley Solheim, Acacia; William Upham, Alpha Delta Phi; Hamilton Phelps, Delta Tau Delta; Roger Kempton, Kappa Sigma; Lawrence Wyly, Phi Delta Theta; Carl Palmer and Reiner Lingelbach, Phi Sigma Kappa; Walter Nolte, Psi Upsilon; Marvin Oreck and Sidney Buchman, Sigma Alpha Nu.

Musical organizations at the university are making the greatest progress in the musical history of the school. With the band and glee club organized, the symphony orchestra is the newest creation, so far this year. Karl Scheuer, the director of the orchestra, is pleased with the showing of the musicians and promises the students and the state one of the best musical bodies that have been organized in Minnesota's history. There are 60 members in the organization.

Next baking use "NEW CENTURY"
Flour