

DELAY TAKEN IN MOVING CASE

Nov. 24 Is Set for Hearing on Petition to Keep Hibbing in Its Present Location.

HIBBING, Oct. 26.—Another postponement in the hearing on the injunction asked by more than 50 villagers to restrain mining companies and other interested parties from moving streets, alleys, public buildings and bridges from the north end of Hibbing to Alice, is announced today.

After agreement of lawyers, Judge Edward Freeman announced the injunction will not be argued until Nov. 24.

VIRGINIA, Oct. 26.—August term of district court has closed here.

Local officials of court are now preparing for the opening of the October term.

Among those to be tried in Hibbing are Dan Cusick, Lucnow, charged with illegal sale of liquors, and Sol Rubloff, formerly of Chisholm, who was arrested in Chicago, charged with running a "confidence game" on Louis Ruth, Chisholm clothing merchant.
