

ODD FELLOWS OF CITY ARE INVITED TO HOMECOMING

West Duluth Lodge to Play Host to Service Men and Others of Fraternity.

A homecoming celebration in honor of 34 members of West Duluth lodge No. 168, I. O. O. F., who served in the great war will be held by that organization at West Duluth Masonic temple, North Central avenue, tomorrow night. A program will be given in the main auditorium of the temple, to be followed by dancing in the halls below. Invitations have been extended to all Duluth and Proctor Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to attend.

To Give Pageant.

A pageant which will include the "Boys of '75," "Columbia," "Uncle Sam," "Red Cross," and other features, has been arranged by the entertainment committee, composed of W. A. Lovelace, S. B. Girard, Charles H. Mathews, Hugh J. Bell, J. C. Myhrem, Mrs. Hugh J. Bell, Miss Esther McLyman, Mrs. H. C. Heckroth and Mrs. Hannah Ganley. The principal speaker will be W. A. Pittenger, past grand master of Minnesota.

Sixty pounds of young venison have been contributed by members of West Duluth lodge No. 145, A. O. U. W. toward the annual venison supper which will be held at Gilley's hall, 322 North Central avenue, Wednesday night. One hundred guests are expected to attend. The supper will be preceded by the election of officers for 1920.

Steel Center Lodge to Meet.

Initiation of candidates and election of new officers will feature the semi-annual meeting of Steel Center lodge No. 241, I. O. O. F., which will be held at the Neighborhood auditorium at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. The new officers will be installed at a meeting to be held early in January, plans for which are now under way.

Preliminary plans for the big entertainment to be given by the lodge Dec. 29, in celebration of the first anniversary of the lodge's organization, will also be considered tomorrow night. Officers of the order now are J. A. MacGillivray, noble grand; Charles F. Grubb, vice-grand; R. G. Mitchell, recording secretary; D. M. Pyle, financial secretary; F. L. Blass, treasurer; Charles Zalk, Joseph Perkins and R. C. Deltz, trustees.
