

NOVEMBER VIES WITH MAY AS MOVING MONTH

Many Duluthians Took Up New Residences During Month

In Duluth the early spring months have not been the only "moving" months of the year. November "movers" have been especially numerous, many of them leaving Duluth to make their homes in Minneapolis and other cities of the middle west.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McClaran and Mr. and Mrs. Melville W. McClaran are moving to Minneapolis, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair, Woodland avenue, moved this week to live at Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis have purchased and are occupying the Sinclair home.

Take New Home.

Judge and Mrs. Herbert A. Dancer removed during the month from their home on East Superior street to the Donald M. Westbrook residence on Lake View drive.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Russell McLean moved from Hunters Park to the Congdon apartments the early part of the month. Mr. and Mrs. Phil C. Starkey, who were living at the home of Mr. Starkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Starkey, London road, moved into their home at 1612 East Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Barr moved from the Hamilton to 1511 East Superior street during the month. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Paddock, Fifty-first avenue East, moved to Superior to make their home.

Chicagoans Come Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ahern and daughter, Jayne Ann, formerly of Chicago, have moved to Duluth and are residing at 2012 Jefferson street. Mr. and Mrs. John Saperstein, also of that city, moved to Duluth this month and are at home at 814 Eighth avenue East.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Boucher moved in from their summer place at Fond du Lac to their home on East Superior street.
