

DEBATE SPEAKERS ARE SELECTED

---

Superior High School Prepares for Triangular Debating Contests.

---

Speakers who will represent Superior high school in the triangular debate were selected at a try-out held at the high school yesterday afternoon. The following speakers were chosen: Robert Sher, Alfred Reske, Grace Helmbaugh, Rose Munn, John Dill, Theodore Chasin, Archie Siegel and Abe Chasin.

The speakers were allowed to speak for three minutes and were given a two-minute rebuttal speech. Students of the high school were admitted to the tryout. Judges of the contest were: J. C. Peters, Miss Edna Webster, O. F. Matson and Mrs. E. Robison. The contest was conducted by Miss Nellie McConnell and Sidney French.

The debaters will meet at the close of school today. Six of the students selected will constitute two teams of three members each. The remaining two of the eight selected, will be alternates.

The question for debate is: "Resolved; that the United States should grant the Philippines immediate independence without reservation."

The debate is scheduled for Jan. 26, but this may be changed to a later date, according to Mr. French.

A silver loving cup has been offered by Siegel Brothers of Superior to the school that is victorious in the debate. Members of the debating teams intend to organize before the Christmas vacation, elect captains and prepare for the debate during the Christmas vacation.

Other speakers who tried out yesterday were: Oscar Buros, Scott McIntyre, John Murphy, Gregory Moore, Verna Caulkins, Virginia Kenny, Harvey Wilson, Edith Hanson, Lawrence Wilson, Margaret Olson, Harold Lasky and Rae Rasmussen.

---