

RANGE SCHOOL DECLAIMERS WILL CONTEST AT HIBBING

Ernest Lippman, Miss Esther Danahy Chosen Representatives

HIBBING, Feb. 28.—High schools of the Mesaba and Vermillion ranges will be represented Saturday night in the double declamation contest, in which winners of the boys and girls' local contests will participate.

Ernest Lippman, winner of the Hibbing high school declamation contest, will represent the local school.

Miss Esther Danahy will represent the Hibbing school in the girl's contest. She is a senior in the school and is popular among the students.

Out of 27 candidates taking part in the tryouts, at Virginia, Raymond Holdridge and Miss Frances Tousin were selected to represent the Queen City school. Holdridge's subject was "America First," and that of Miss Tousin "Billy Brad and the Big Lie."
