

'OLD THIRD' CLUB FORMED; ELECTS GARON PRESIDENT

---

Members of Former Guard Unit, Later in 125th Field Artillery, A. E. F., Meet at Armory.

---

"Boys of the Old Third" gathered once again at the Armory yesterday afternoon, completing the organization of a joint social and business organization, to perpetuate the memory of their organization, once the Third Minnesota infantry and later the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth field artillery.

Any soldier who belonged to the Third infantry in 1917, before it left here, whether he returned with the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth or not, is eligible to membership in the new club.

Election of temporary officers resulted in the selection of the following: President, Lieut. J. Garon; vice president, Sergt. J. H. Collins; secretary, Corp. J. J. Mullaly, and treasurer, Lieut. F. Alme.

The meeting was called on short notice and with its limited advertising the attendance of more than 50 men was gratifying to the promoters. The next meeting will be held at 2 p. m. next Sunday at the Armory, where permanent headquarters have been established in the old Third infantry's clubrooms.

Plans are on foot for a big ball to be given on St. Patrick's day at the Armory. Funds will be given to relief or charitable causes.

---