

Society

Miss Betsy Edwards.

Miss Rose Sanders.

Miss Mary Mendenhall.

MID-JUNE BRIDES ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR THEIR WEDDINGS WEDNESDAYS ARE POPULAR

Small Home Weddings Favored By Many-Brides
Have Been honored At Many Affairs.
Evening Parties on Lawns.

NOW that the excitement incident to the return of the college people has subsided, and the influx of summer visitors has only begun, the weddings and teas for the brides are the center of all social life. Mid June week has been more than popular with the Duluth girls who are to become brides this summer. Home weddings have been unusually popular so far, though there are several church affairs planned for the coming week. During the period of the war, when quiet hurried ceremonies performed during a few days' leave were the predominating thing in weddings. With the war clouds cleared, there should be a return to the formal evening weddings of other days. Duluth has several new churches which lend their classic charm so wonderfully as a background for pretty affairs, that it is to be hoped that the brides of the late summer will consider the larger church affairs when making their plans.

maids will be Miss Frieda Shapiro of St. Paul and Miss Sarah Goldish. Herman Ginsberg, brother of the groom, will serve as best man and the groomsmen will be Ben B. Miller and Abe Miller. Mildred Goldish of St. Paul will be the ring bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ginsberg will leave for an extended western trip and will spend three months in California. They will make their home in Duluth this fall.

Miss Rae Miller was guest of honor at a dinner party given Thursday night at the Congress hotel by Miss Marguerite Lydon, Miss Katherine Lydon, Miss Ann Lydon, Miss Claribel Brouillett and Miss Martha Smith.

Mrs. Ben Goldish entertained at a luncheon at the Glass Block tea rooms yesterday in honor of Miss Rae Miller.

Zurovsky-Altman.

The marriage of Miss Rae Zurovsky and M. G. Altman will be solemnized today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Polinski of Third avenue East. Rabbi Teplitz will officiate. The rooms will be decorated with palms and spring flowers.

Miss Esther Zurovsky, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Ida Zurovsky, Miss Esther Viener, Miss Ida Oreck and Miss Sheba Polinsky. Monich Altman, brother of the groom will be his attendant, Miss Evelyn Altman will be the ringbearer.

Alex Zurovsky, I. Natelson, Mr. and Mrs. I. Oreck and Abe Oreckovsky will be the ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Altman will leave for a short trip and will be at home in Duluth after July 5.

Miss Esther Zurovsky and Miss Mollie Polinsky entertained in honor of Miss Rat Zurovsky at a dancing party given Monday night at the Japanese gardens of Lester Park. The affair was attended by 50 couples.

Miller-Ginsberg.

The marriage of Miss Rae Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller of Jefferson street, and J. D. Ginsberg of Des Moines, Iowa, will take place June 25, at Forester's hall. Wild roses and other spring flowers will decorate the altar effectively.

Miss Betsy Miller, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and the brides-