

LAST WEEK OF JUNE BRINGS MANY BRIDES

Many Weddings Have Taken Place and More Planned.

This has been a week of brides. Beginning on Sunday when Miss Rae Zurovsky became the bride of M. G. Altman, there have been at least one wedding each day. Two are planned for Wednesday. Miss Mary Frances Hubbard and Walter Lafex will be married in the morning, and Miss Rae Miller will become the bride of J. D. Ginsberg in the afternoon.

Miss Anna Margaret Bothwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bothwell, became the bride of Jean L. Biegler of Duluth, formerly of England. Rev. Father O'Brien celebrated the nuptial mass at St. James' Catholic church at 2 a. m.

Miss Margaret McNulty and James Bothwell were the attendants. The bride wore her traveling suit of midnight blue tricotine with a corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley. A wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony. Pink snap dragons and roses were used effectively in the rooms.

After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Biegler will make their home in Duluth.

Another bride was Miss Margaret Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Minnesota avenue, whose marriage to Charles R. McGuire took place in the morning at the Sacred Heart cathedral. Wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, and a reception given in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. McGuire will make their home at 3730 Minnesota avenue.

The marriage of Miss Marie Vachon and Samuel D. Thompson was solemnized at the Sacred Heart cathedral at 8 a. m. yesterday morning. The church and altars were effectively decorated with spring flowers. Miss Agnes Daley of Superior and Edward R. Vachon, a brother of the groom, were the attendants. Miss Vachon wore her traveling suit of dark blue tricotine and a corsage of tea roses. Miss Theresa Lynn presided at the organ. Frank J. Lincoln sang an Ave Marie, and O Salutaris during the nuptial mass.

A wedding breakfast of 12 covers was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Vachon, St. Regis apartments after the ceremony. Pink and white snapdragons and roses were used on the table.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home at 2910 Holmes avenue, Minneapolis.

Among the out of town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. Julia Thompson of Minneapolis, Mrs. Agnes Kilen of St. Paul and Frank Lincoln of St. Paul.
