

Visiting Matron

Much Entertained

Mrs. Ernest Gallinatti entertained at luncheon at her home, Minnesota avenue in honor of her sister, Mrs. Edward A. Smith of Seattle, who has been her guest for the past month. Covers were laid for the Mesdames, Edward A. Smith, William Harper, Adolph Gallinatti, James Merck, Frank McCaggerity, Raymond Rivetts and Henry Mehler.

Miss Maud Baudizzona entertained at a theater party in honor of Mrs. Smith. The guests included Mesdames E. Gallinatti, A. Gallinatti, and Smith.

Mrs. Smith was the honor guest at launch party given by Mrs. Edward Gorton. The other guests were the Misses Mildred Groton, Nell Gallney, Ethel Groton, Malvinia Gallinatti, Messrs. and Mesdames Adolph Gallinatti, E. Gallinatti and Ed Groton.

Mrs. Frank Maccaffernity gave a beach party in honor of Mrs. Henry Mehler of Ashland. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Henry Mehler, Raymond Rivetts, Carl Jarvi, Newell Leighton, Mesdames James Marek, Ernest Gallinatti, E. A. Smith and E. Jones, Mr. Bozeley, and Mr. Broadshaw.

Mrs. James Marek entertained in honor of Mrs. Mehler at a luncheon at her home on Minnesota avenue. Covers were laid for Mesdames H. Mehler, Raymond Rivetts of Superior, Ernest Gallinatti, Carl Jarvi, E. A. Smith, F. Maccaggerity and James Marek.

Mrs. I. Salamowitz accompanied by her daughter Rose and sons, Samuel and Henney, of Marietta, Ohio, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kaner and Mr. and Mrs. S. Kaner, John avenue, Superior. They will also visit friends in Duluth.

The Misses Helen Gibbs, Elizabeth Neville, Emily Miller and Charlotte Azine of Duluth, and Miss Geraldine Hilland of Superior have taken the Banks cottage at Solon Springs, Wis. for the coming two weeks.