

DULUTH WAR VETERANS RECEIVE 1,200 OF NEW VICTORY BUTTONS

Twelve hundred Victory buttons have been presented to Duluth veterans of the great war, according to Lieut. Samuel Wiener, in charge of the local recruiting office. Of this number, 100 of the buttons were silver, denoting that the wearer was wounded. The recruiting office is keeping a record of those men to whom Victory buttons were given.