

MUSICAL AT LIGHTHOUSE PARTY TODAY

Ticket Exchange Will Enable Blind to Hear Music.

The fall season of parties at the Lighthouse will begin today. Mrs. M. Cook, who has charge of the entertainments on Friday afternoons during the play hour, has arranged a delightful musical program for today. Mrs. B. J. Cook will give several piano numbers and there will be community singing. Miss Marjorie Shipherd will have charge of the dance hour.

An exchange for theater and concert tickets will be opened at the Lighthouse this week. It is suggested that all who have tickets to theaters, concerts or entertainments which they will be unable to use, will notify the Lighthouse, Melrose 4464, arrangements will be made to have the tickets used by someone who otherwise would not have an opportunity to attend.
