A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Zionist organization was held at Chicago. Herman Arohnson, who attended as a Superior delegate, reported. Four thousand delegates from all parts of the United States attended the meeting.

Zimo, the famous Jewish orchestra, gave selections at the programs each night. Prominent among the speakers were Judge Julius Mack, Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the United States supreme court, Judge Hugo Pann, Jacob D. Hass, Rabbi Wise, Louis Lipski, Miss Henrietta Azold and Mrs. J. Fels.

"America's participation in the work of restoring to the Jewish people was mapped out at the second day of the conference," Mr. Arohnson said yesterday.

Charles Arinovitch, who also represented Superior, will return today.
