EASTERN SCHOOLS ATTRACT MANY OF YOUNGER SET; FEW PARTIES PLANNED FOR WEEK

Garden Fete on Attractive Lawns Is the Largest Social Affair of the Coming Week.

Small Informal Get Togethers for Departing College Folks Are Scheduled.

DEPARTING school children and college boys and girls are holding the center of the social stage at present. For the young folks themselves there are the thousand and one thrills of the new year. For those who are going away for the first time there is the anxiety regarding the school and the campus, for all there is the possibilities connected with the drawing of roommates and the changing of teachers. Social life has been inactive for the last week. Small informal get-togethers in the nature of farewells before the summer crowd is separated are about all that has constituted play for the younger set. For their parents, the time not spent in preparing school plans, is given to outlining club programs and making arrangements for the opening of the club year.

There are to be a few fall weddings and rumors of many announcements of engagements are persistent. Miss Pearl Flood will be married during the month to Arthur Hughes of Superior. And there will be at least one large society church wedding.

The garden party to be given on the spacious lawns surrounding the Marshall and Merrill homes by the Matinee Musicals will be the chief society event of the coming week. The officers will assist the hostesses and many of the younger girls will be at the membership tables.
