

ABOUT PEOPLE

MRS. M. E. SCROGGINS, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLean, Sixteenth avenue East, will return to her home in Minneapolis next week. Among the affairs given for her was the attractive luncheon of 30 covers that Mrs. McLean gave at the Kitchi Gammi club during the past week.

S. J. SCHAKELFORD and daughters, Misses Dorothy and Suzanne Schakelford, who are the house guests of Mrs. A. M. Miller, East Second street, will return to their home in Frankfort, Ky., the latter part of next week.

MAJ. D. R. BRYANT of Kansas City, Mrs. O. E. Renfro and daughter, Miss Eleanor Renfro, who have been the house guests of Mrs. Arthur G. Hatch, East Superior street, left on the North American for a short visit in Chicago. Mr. Renfro joined them on the trip and the latter part of the week they will leave for Kansas City.

MRS. GORDON PATERSON and her guest, Miss Grace Falconer of Detroit, Mich., are spending the week in St. Paul.

MRS. ROBERT LESTER GLASS, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Olin W. Rowe, East First street, has left for her home in Biwabik.

MRS. FRANK H. MEYER of Meadville, Lake Minnetonka, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. R. Baldwin, Seventh avenue East. Next week she will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Meyer, Jefferson street.

MRS. CARRIE Z. DOOLITTLE, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. Franklin Fee of East Superior street, and Mrs. J. H. La Vague, will leave the last of the week for her home in Minneapolis.

MR. AND MRS. G. M. HAYS left Sunday via the lakes for their home in Nutwood, Ohio, after spending 10 days as the guest of their cousin, Mrs. A. L. Strain, Fourth avenue East.

MRS. FREDERICK H. LINLEY, East First street, who is visiting in Milwaukee, was honored at a delightful bridge party given by Mrs. George Chamberlain and Miss Margaret Chamberlain at their home on Prospect avenue, Milwaukee.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. PRESTON of Cincinnati, formerly of Duluth, who arrived Saturday on the Juniata, are leaving this afternoon for St. Paul after spending the week end here.

MRS. ROBERT PUGH and her daughter, Dorothy Anne, of Hayward, Wis., are the guests of Mrs. Pugh's sister, Mrs. H. W. Brown, North Boulevard, Morgan Park.

MR. AND MRS. A. J. JOHNSTON and son have returned home after a week's outing in the lake region north of Duluth.

MISS ETHEL M. POCOCK and Mrs. Florence Mason of St. Paul were in the city yesterday en route to Port Arthur and Fort William, via the Great Lakes. They will return the latter part of the week.

MISS MARY E. MAHADY, Munger Terrace, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. John Mahady, at Tower, Minn.

MRS. JACK WELBURN of St. Paul is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sullivan at her home at Macomber, Minn.

EDWARD HATCH of Eveleth motored to Duluth yesterday to spend a few days with friends.

EDWARD QUINN, Third avenue East, has returned from Cascade, Minn., where he spent the summer months.

MRS. LOUIS LASS, East Sixth street, had as dinner guests yesterday, Miss Jeanette and Miss Edna Rabinoff and Miss Anna Lass, all of New York city, who arrived here in the morning, leaving last night on the Tionesta for Mackinac island where they will pass six days. Miss Esther Lass is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lass.

One hundred members of the Sisters of Israel gave a surprise party last night in honor of Mrs. D. Silk at her home, 2016 East Sixth street. Mrs. Silk is the newly re-elected president of the organization, having served as its head continuously for 20 years. In consideration of her service the members presented an electric percolator to Mrs. Silk.