

DENFELD DEBATERS LOSE TO CLOQUET AGGREGATION

Cloquet debaters, upholding the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, that the United States should grant the Philippines their independence immediately," won by a two-to-one decision over the Denfeld high school team at the Denfeld school last night.

C. C. McCarthy of Grand Rapids, J. A. Van Dyke of Coleraine and Rev. E. H. Goodell of Superior were the judges. The winning team was composed of Ralph Holmberg, Harry Kaner and Frances O'Meara. Edith Shodeen, Leonard Hendrickson and Arthur Ness represented Denfeld. J. N. Peyton of West Duluth presided.

Miss Billings coached the Cloquet trio and M. G. Grant and Miss Lenore K. Snodgrass, the Denfeld team.
