

ME AND MY FRIENDS

POPPLE — Joe Lacher and Wallace Colwell sawed wood for F. L. Vance.

BAGLEY—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Johnson and baby have arrived from North Dakota. Johnson is the new manager of the local farmers' elevator.

NASHWAUK — Rudolph Raatama, Rufus Johnston, Gordon Trythall and Henry Rokala have resumed their studies at arilton college. William Cloon returned to Hamline university.

PINETOP—Mrs. H. Rieger has the distinction of being the only farmer from this section of Minnesota to register for farmers and 'homeseekers' week at the university farm.

ISLE—Mrs. E. C. Boeck has returned from a visit to relatives in Plainview, Minn.

EVELETH—Sam Ellis manager of the Eveleth Fair store, has gone to Minneapolis and New York on business for a newly organized clothing store here, of which he is treasurer.

BEAR RIVER—Mrs. Ray Johnson, Superior, has accepted a position as teacher in District No. 48.

POPPLE—G. W. Waller hauled a load of flour and feed from Bass Lake.

BAGLEY—Marie Malland has returned from Walker, where she had accompanied her sister, Amanda, to the state sanitarium.

NASHWAUK—The teaching force is back at work with only two changes. Maude Dinsmore of Delavan, Wis., succeeds Ellen Boulger in the eighth grade at Keewatin and Florence James of Mankato takes the place of Marie Kensen, who has accepted a position in the Minneapolis schools.

ISLE—Victor Peterson and E. C. Boeck attended the Altkin Auto Club luncheon.

BEAR RIVER—L. E. Baum, who is constructing concrete bridge here, is visiting his family in Superior.

POPPLE—Vance Bartlett has resumed work at the Valler camp. Nelson, Ella Larson, Cora McBain and Signa Sletten have returned as teachers to their respective schools at Leonard. Ebro, Thompson, (N. D.), Leonard and Bronson after spending their Christmas holidays here.

BEAR RIVER—Mrs. William Hall ner daughter, Mrs. J. H. McClune.

WRIGHT—Mr. and Mrs. W. Peterson have arrived home from the lumberman's annual convention at Wadena.