

CHILD KEPT FROM SCHOOL, CHARGE; FATHER FOUND GUILTY

Tom Adamski was found guilty in municipal court yesterday of failure to send a child to school. Judge F. H. Cutting released him without bail for sentence Nov. 15.

Frank Labovitz, who was arraigned on a charge of maintaining temporary signs on his place of business, pleaded not guilty. He was released without bail for trial today. William Euckheim pleaded guilty to violating a traffic ordinance and received a suspended sentence.