

FORMER DULUTH MAN WEDS LIBRARIAN AT VIRGINIA

VIRGINIA, Nov. 29.—The marriage of Miss Rose Levenson and Daid Segal, both of this city, was solemnized in Duluth last night, the bridal couple leaving for a two weeks' wedding tour. They will make their home at Virginia.

The bride was a member of the class of 1916 Virginia high school and has been employed at the city library. The groom is a Duluth boy employed at the Kratz clothing store here. He served in the navy during the war.