

MISS WEINBERG BECOMES A BRIDE AT TEMPLE HALL

Large Reception Following Ceremony Honors Bridal Couple.

SOUTHERN SMILAX AND ROSES formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Fanny Weinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weinberg, and Jacob Garon, which took place at 5 o'clock yesterday at the old Masonic temple. Rabbi I. Teplitz read the marriage services in the presence of 100 relatives and intimate friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white georgette elaborately beaded. Her veil was in a coronet effect with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and freezia.

She was preceded by the bridesmaids, Miss Sarah Weinberg and Miss Anna Garon. Miss Weinberg wore pink georgette trimmed with beads and carried Killarney roses. Miss Garon was attired in a gown of yellow taffeta combined with blue georgette. She carried a large bouquet of roses. Little Bernice Garon and Harry Garon led the bridal procession. Harry Segal and Tobias Garon were the bridegroom's attendants.

Following the ceremony dinner was served. A reception for 200 guests was held at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Garon have left on an extended eastern trip and will be at home in Duluth about April 1.
