

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

MR. AND MRS. A. W. HARTMAN, East Superior street, and Mr. and Mrs. Telford C. Hartman, Kent road, have issued invitations to a dance which they will give Wednesday night at the Klitchi Gammi club.

MR. AND MRS. A. F. FERGUSON, East Superior street, entertained twenty five couples at a formal dance last night at "The Hamilton."

MISS ERNESTINE TRAUBMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Traubman, East First street, will entertain 20 of the younger girls tomorrow at an Orpheum party followed by refreshments at her home.

MRS. H. Y. JOSEPH, East Superior street, entertained eight guests yesterday at a luncheon at the Grey-solon tea rooms, complementing Mrs. Eisenberg of St. Paul, and Mrs. Abels, who leaves soon for Europe.

MR. AND MRS. FRED MAXON of Morgan park announce the marriage of their daughter, Vera, to Capt. Bernard Ransome of Newport News, Va., which took place Friday April 17. Captain and Mrs. Ransome will make their home in Newport News. Mrs. Ransome is a niece of Mrs. Guy Eaton of Duluth and is well known here.

MRS. R. J. DAVIS and Mrs. J. W. Richards of Lakeside entertained Wednesday afternoon at an informal tea, at the home of Mrs. Richards.

KING'S DAUGHTERS will meet this afternoon at the home of Miss Caroline Moore, Twenty Third avenue East.