

DULUTH WOMAN WILL HAVE SHARE IN $100,000 ESTATE

Mrs. Sarah Polinsky of Duluth is named as one of six heirs to an estate valued at $100,000, left by her father, the late Max Shapiro of Eveleth, according to a will filed in probate court yesterday. Other heirs are Mrs. Wely Shapiro, the widow; Minnie and Florence Shapiro, daughters, of Eveleth, and Emanuel Z. Shapiro, son of this city, who, with the widow, is named as joint executor of the estate.

Mr. Shapiro was formerly prominent in business at Eveleth. He died at a Duluth hospital, age 74, last April 27. His estate includes city property valued at $22,680 and bonds and notes at $35,000. Although the estate is placed at only $70,000 in the petition for probate of the will, attorneys stated yesterday that the aggregate will probably total $100,000.
