

Rah! Rah! Stuff

MOTLEY—Many local school children have enrolled in the United States garden army. The work carried on for three years is growing more popular. Sewing and bread-making clubs also have been organized under the leadership of Miss Dolores Ward, home economics teacher. The high school's commencement address will be given Thursday, May 27, by the Rev. Philip Broberg, Minneapolis. After a health clinic conducted here, the county Red Cross nurse reported the health of local school children was above the average.

VIRGINIA—Girls of the local junior and senior high schools, meeting with Miss Lorena McFarlane, girls' vocational adviser, discussed courses of study for next year.

The Minnesota alumni of Hibbing and immediate vicinity will serve a banquet in the library auditorium Monday, May 24. President-Elect Coffman of the university has been asked to deliver the address of the evening. Israel Sher is preparing some skits on university life. Following is the banquet committee: Miss B. Finn, chairman; Gladys Ryan, Florence Donahue, Israel Sher, Dana Butchart, L. W. Dooley, Frances Irwin and Mrs. B. S. Adams.

HIBBING—The latest issue of the "Hemstite," monthly publication of the local high school, appeared later than usual because there has been no instructor in the printing department.

WRIGHT—Commencement exercises in the local high school will be held Friday, May 21. Six girls are to graduate.

HIBBING—The following committees have been named to arrange for the annual banquet of the Hibbing junior college to be given in the college hall Lincoln high school building, on the evening of Thursday, May 20.

Hall Decorations—Walter Thompson, chairman; H. Lehman, Lyle Everett, James Darlington, Victor Hulstrand, Frank Hall, John Rian, Lawrence Rowe, Mr. Cameron, Mathias Helstrom, John Lundquist and George Krier.

Table Decorations—Mary Gourley, chairman; Hazel Healy, Miss Hayden, Viola Akenbrand, Margaret Hamilton, Esther Danahy, June Kaiser, Helen McDowell and Mabel Smith.

Toasts—Rose Hargrave, chairman; Esther Lettig, Ellen Jarpe, Earl Hobe, Loretta McNamara.

Place Card—Mr. Pratt, chairman; Leslie Storer, Edwin Friedman, John Anderson, John McEachin and Dana Butchart.

Menu and Program—Margaret Gourley, chairman; Ross Elliott, G. Whitehouse, Ida Johnson, James Sheehy, Jack Gulas, Pearl Anderson and Hulda Peterson.

Tickets—Henry Drescher, Amelia Currie, Eva Friday, George Imbertson, Dennis Murphy, Hazel Slattery, Charles Milkes, Annette Baldus, Everett Pingrey and Hugo Nemela.

General Arrangements and Publicity—Florence Donahue, Arthur Foster, Arthur Herrett, John Foucault, Donald Whitehouse, Alrich Lindquist and Dorothy Corbett.

VIRGINIA—Dr. Henry Clark has been engaged by the school board to give the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of the Virginia high school in the new auditorium Sunday afternoon, June 6 at 3 o'clock.

MOUNTAIN IRON—Graduation events, as scheduled here, follow: Baccalaureate services, Sunday, June 6, 8 p. m.; class night exercises, Monday, June 7, 8:15 p. m.; West Virginia eighth grade exercises, Tuesday, June 8, 8:15 p. m.; Leonidas eighth grade exercises, Wednesday, June 9, 8:15 p. m.; high school commencement and Mountain Iron eighth grade exercises, June 10, 8:15 p. m.; school closes Friday, June 11. The board of education has again entered into contract with the University of Minnesota for a lyceum course of seven numbers. Several numbers will be engaged for two or three evenings, in order to give the people at West Virginia and Leonidas the benefit of a lyceum course. Clarence E. Kohl of the local high school went to Eveleth Wednesday evening and was a judge of the swimming contest held at the Eveleth high school pool between swimming teams from Chisholm, Gilbert and Eveleth high schools.

VIRGINIA—The first number of "The Tradesman" will soon be published by the high school printing department for the vocational school and will appear regularly next year. The first annual picnic by the faculty of the Technical high school for pupils was given at Ely lake.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, May 14.—The annual high school exhibit will be held in the high school auditorium Friday, May 21. The annual training department will exhibit $3,000 worth of furniture.

The art department will show commercial designing, interior decorating, costume designing, paper and cardboard constructive work, permedello modeling, toy making and nature and object drawing.

The department of agriculture will display a model farm, with crop rotations, buildings, glass brooder contain-chicks, incubator hatching eggs, milk testing, butter making, soil testing, rope splicing and seed potato treatment. Tomato and cabbage plants will be given free to visitors.

The home economics department will exhibit articles of clothing, bread, cake and pie.