

Rah! Rah! Stuff

BRAINERD—The baccalaureate sermon was delivered to the high school graduating class by Rev. E. A. Cooke. The high school orchestra and glee club gave a special musical program under the direction of Lydia Nelson. The 1920 class has 52 students.

DEER RIVER—Bids for the erection of an addition to the high school building will be opened June 4. The building will be used for living quarters for the teachers, city library, gymnasium and high school quarters. E. D. Broomhall of Duluth is the architect.

Closing exercises of the high school were held Sunday night at the Methodist church. Rev. B. H. Reid delivered the baccalaureate sermon. Dr. Main of Hamline university will deliver the commencement address on Wednesday. Those who will graduate are: Elizabeth Robinson, valedictorian; Margaret McCallum, salutatorian; Ruth Erickson, Emma McCallum, Mabel Murray, Hazel Olson and Ethel Randall. They have chosen as their motto "Love, labor and laugh."

HIBBING—Members of the Minnesota "U" alumni on the Mesaba range attended a banquet given at the library. Nearly two hundred attended the affair. A program of speeches was given by the various members. Israel Sher planned several skits and these proved interesting to the "U" graduates.

AITKIN—The senior class of the Aitkin high school will hold its exercises Wednesday night at the Methodist church. The program follows: Class history, Irene Buckholz; vocal solo, Richard Trudgen; selection, Girls' Glee club; class prophecy, Lloyd Bennett; reading, Ethel Burquist; class will, Allan Murphy; selection, Girls' Glee club. The baccalaureate sermon was preached Sunday by Rev. L. J. Marsh.

GRAND RAPIDS—A team consisting of three boys won first place in the bread-making contest between the Deer River, Cohasset and Grand Rapids schools. They were Dean Affleck, Sidney Milaney and Phillip Hooper. Miss Margaret Anderson of La Prairie, who won first individual honors, will represent Itasca county at the state fair contest.

BEMIDJI—Miss Bertha Webster, local high school senior, has been awarded a $100 scholarship at Hamline university. She was the winner in a scholarship competition recently conducted by the college which gave away 25 scholarships. Each candidate submitted his scholastic record, three testimonials as to character and a written essay on one of several current topics. Miss Webster's essay was on "The Value of a College Education."

WRIGHT—The following have graduated from the local high school: Olga Forsland, Irwina St. Clair, Sigurd Hjulstad, Mabel L. Martin, Florence Cloutier and Viola Nordquist.

AITKIN—One of the last duties of the geometry class was to measure the Catholic church steeple which was found to be 125 feet high.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS—Graduation and commencement exercises of the senior high school class will take place Friday. Graduates are: Sarah E. Rifkin, Harold J. Bray, Eva V. Brennan, Aloysious Carew, Burton K. Day, Wm. L. Gish, Paul O. Haas, Ethel M. Lee, Hannah S. Newman, Oscar W. Newman, Vivian B. Rompre, Agatha M. Schonsby, Laurel G. Smith and Nelita Smootz.

NORTHOME—Commencement exercises will be held Friday night in the Lux theater. Graduates are Gladys Engelking, valedictorian, Remi Dufort, Lanta Kester and Arthur McLinn. J. C. Farris, Minneapolis, will give the commencement address.

BARNUM—Rev. J. E. Dowler preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Barnum high school. His subject was "Wheat or Tares." Special music was given under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Brewer.