

OUTDOOR SCHOOL WORK TO START

Twelve City Playgrounds Will Open Tomorrow With Full Quota of Directors.

Duluth's twelve playgrounds will open tomorrow with a full quota of directors for the summer work, J. R. Batchelor, city recreational director, announced yesterday. The first outdoor program of the season will be given at Chester Park tomorrow night.

A cast of ten girls, coached by Miss V'Lora Welch, will present "The Quest of the Pink Parasol" as the principal number in the program of games and music. The cast follows: Queen, Patricia Stein; Ruth, Bernice Kloepfel; Gardner, Mildred Herrian; first poppy, Clarice Helmer; second poppy, Mable Valline; third poppy, Harriet Cheadle; fourth poppy, Elizabeth Whitney; fifth poppy, Marjorie Johns; sixth poppy, Dorothy Batchelor; seventh poppy, Evelyn Deighton.

The playground directors for this summer, who will receive instructions at a meeting in the council chamber tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock are: Lester Park, Sydney Buchman and Miriam Bandy; Washburn, Olga Hellberg and Eugene Bandy; Chester Park, Morris Karon and V'Lora Welch; Washington, Geraldine Buckley and Jacob Tulman; Webster, Elvira Helander and Sam Casimir; Park Point, Hamilton Pheleps and Charlotte Marvin; Observation, Margaret McKussick and Joseph Mainela; Harrison, Clarence Jintoft and Gladys Annand; Irving, Gaylord Lee and Evelyn Helmaih; Fairmount, Helen Beacon and Sylvester De Santo; Morgan Park, John Jones and Bessie Fox; Stowe, Helen Randall.

Playground letters for the winners in the athletic tests and the honor tests will be awarded at the end of the season. Fifteen new swings for the little children at the playgrounds were distributed yesterday.

Directors and outfits for sport programs at lodge, Sunday school, and other picnics which have been furnished free by the city recreational department for three years, are proving as popular as ever this year, Mr. Batchelor reports.
