THE NEED OF CLOTHING is urgent at the Girls' Industrial home at present. The ever-changing personnel of the classes in sewing and millinery soon exhausts the supply of discarded garments, and at this time there is a great need for more material for the classes. Discarded clothing, hats or shoes, are particularly asked. These are cleaned, or washed, dyed and remodeled into clothing which the girls are permitted to take with them when they leave the home.

Mrs. Fred Sermon, Hemlock 3226, is chairman of the Woman's Council committee at the home, and will gladly call for any bundles of cast-off clothing or materials which may be donated to the home.

MRS. RALPH M'INTYRE, West Second street, returned Friday night from Sauk Center, Minn., where she has been visiting Mr. McIntyre's parents for three weeks.

MRS. A. E. PAUL, East Sixth street, has returned from Detroit, Minn., where she went as a delegate to the convention of the Royal League from the Ruth council.

MR. AND MRS. S. WEINER have returned from Minneapolis and will spend a couple of months as the guests of Mrs. Weiner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Silverman, East Fourth street.

OFFICERS and members of the Lakeside chapter, 225, O. E. S., were entertained Wednesday at an all-day picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Russell, Regent street. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock at small tables placed on the lawn, which was decorated with flags and Japanese lanterns. The evening was spent with games and music. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gemmell and Mrs. John Bennett assisted the host and hostess.

MISS CLARA RICHARDSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Richardson, entertained at a luncheon of eight covers at the Boat club Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Rosalie Parsons. Gladioli, yellow cosmos and baby's breath were used in the table decorations.

MRS. R. E. TOWNSEND, Woodland avenue, entertained 30 members of Circle No. 5 of St. Paul's Episcopal church at a picnic supper at her summer place on Chubb lake yesterday. The trip home was made in the moonlight.

MISS BEATRICE BOLTON, who is a student at the Art Institute in Chicago, is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Bolton, East Superior street.

MISS CECEDES LAMPKER of Florida, formerly of Duluth, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dormedy, West Fourth street.
