West Superior Street Jeweler Slashed by Negro Fight Over Watch Alleged to Have Been Stolen A FTER a hand-to-hand struggle-in which a knife and an unloaded revolver were used as weapons, Harry Witz, owner of a jewelry store

A at 502 West Superior street, assisted by Martin Ruth, a salesman, last night overpowered John Edwards, a negro. Witz's right wrist was CUL. Edwards was held hat night at police headquarters, but no charge was placed against him. According to the store owner a negro who gave his name some time ago as Harry Jordan, pawned a watch for $10. Witz, upon learning the timepiece was stolen property, sided the police in returning it to the owner. When Edwards sought to redeem the watch about 8 o'clock last night Witz drew the revolver and attempted to cover him until police could be called.

Graphing with Witz, Edwards gained possession of the weapon and trief the policy of the policy in Buffalo. He denied he had previously pawned the watch.