

Bride at Home

Wedding on Sunday

Miss Shirley Saperstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Saperstein, became the bride of Moreece F. Silverman last Sunday at a pretty home wedding, in the presence of 50 guests. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silver cloth with an over skirt of white net, held in place with bowknots of silver ribbon. Her veil was arranged very effect and was trimmed with mother of pearls and lilies of the valley. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Evelyn Saperstein, who wore a pale pink organdie made colonial style, with a hat to match and a corsage of white sweet peas and roses. A. J. Brusso was the best man. Mrs. Silverman was gowned in black satin, trimmed with fringe, and Mrs. Saperstein wore a gown of dark brown charmeuse with an overskirt of georgette, trimmed in iridescent beads and embroidery.

The out of town guests included, Mrs. J. Danker and daughters of Chicago, Mrs. A. Abelman and daughter, Miss S. Abelman, Frank Abelman of Bessemer, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. S. Weiner of Minneapolis, Miss Mildred Firk of Chicago, and John L. Sasnosky of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Silverman have left for a trip to Cable, Wis., and will be at home in Duluth after Aug. 15.
