

ME AND MY FRIENDS

EVELETH—W. H. Nicholas has purchased the James Marra wholesale flour, hay and feed business and will conduct a wholesale and retail business. Nicholas owned and conducted the Eveleth Steam laundry until last spring when he sold it to the White Cross Laundry company.

C. W. Jenkins, assistant postmaster in Eveleth for the last 13 years, has resigned, to accept a clerical position in St. Paul with the Northern Pacific railroad. Jenkins has sold his home here. He and his family are now visiting in Chippewa Falls, Wis. Louis Andrews, dispatch clerk, will succeed Jenkins as assistant postmaster.

Dr. C. W. More has returned from Rochester, Minn., where he attended a meeting of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. More is one of 15 who represented the state of Minnesota at the meeting.

A. C. Roth, St. Paul, has opened a wholesale fruit and produce business on Fayal road, near the Farmers' market, with an office at 416 Pierce street. Roth expects to buy produce from the farmers of this vicinity.

VIRGINIA—Miss Hannah Bloomquist has been appointed stenographer in the office of the clerk of district court, to succeed Miss Ida Schwartz, resigned. Miss Schwartz has gone to Duluth, where she will make her home with her parents, who moved there recently from Mountain Iron.

AITKIN—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ballard, St. Louis, motored here from that city and are visiting the Cedar Lake summer resort.

HILL CITY—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Richard have left here on a trip through western Canada to the Pacific coast, visiting points in British Columbia, Oregon, Washington and California.