

TO OUTLINE PLAN FOR CIVIC CENTER

New York Man Will Speak This Afternoon at Mass Meeting of Jews.

A mass meeting of all Jews of Duluth will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Hebrew Institute, 310 East Third street to report progress made in plans for the proposed Jewish community center, in which all Jewish activities of Duluth will be held.

Dr. Benjamin Plotkin of New York, who has been in Duluth for two weeks to urge the centralization Jewish activities, will explain plans he has outlined and will submit them at the meeting for approval and adoption. The plans if adopted will be put into immediate practice and work on the Jewish community center structure begun. Other speakers will include D. P. Fieldman, Mrs. J. Winer, Miss M. Weinberg and M. Labovitz. The last three named are newly elected officers of the Jewish Young People's club that was organized by Dr. Plotkin Friday night. They will report on activities outlined for the organization during winter months.
