

ALEPH BETH CLUB NEWS Club House Plans Furthered.

The Aleph Beth Club held a meeting Tuesday evening, attended by a fair representation of members. The principal topic of business of the evening was the report of the Building Committee, of which Mr. L. Oestricher is chairman, recommending the leasing of the old Minnesota Club building, at Fourth and Cedar Streets, consisting of four floors, to contain, dance hall, gymnasium, showers, dormitories for members, dining room and all other club facilities. After considerable discussion of the ways and means of financing the project, the club acted unanimously authorizing the Committee to proceed with the leasing of the building. Definite announcements of the closing of the deal are expected soon.

Washington Birthday Dance.

The club will entertain at a large and unique dance at the Palm Room of the St. Paul Hotel, on the evening of Washington's birthday, February 22nd. The committee, of which Mr. Edward Helperin is chairman, have arranged and are planning one of the most entertaining affairs that the Jewish people have yet seen in the way of a dance. Arrangements are being made to accommodate over two hundred couples with entire convenience and enjoyment to all. Announcements will be mailed out in a few days.

POALE ZIONISTS-WORKERS' ALLIANCE TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

A musical and humorous evening which promises to be of intense interest, has been planned jointly by the Poale Zionists and the National Jewish Workers Alliance for Saturday evening, February 5. Among the entertainers will be the famous baritone, C. H. Katilansky, of the Russian "Isba", and Al Harris, the well known impersonator of Sholom Aleichem's humorous types. Other musical selections will be rendered by Mrs. Marion Bernstein-Bearman, violinist, and piano duet by the Misses Lena Sachs and Gertrude Silber.

PAYNE'S PHARMACY PURCHASED BY JOE ROSENTHAL

Mr. Joseph Rosenthal, for seven years proprietor of the Oak Park Pharmacy, corner Morgan and Plymouth Avenues North, has extended his business and purchased Payne's pharmacy in the same block. Mr. Rosenthal's courteous service is well known to his patrons in the vicinity. They will now have the advantage of his being at the head of the two establishments which supply the drug and prescription needs in the district to which he has so efficiently catered.

GORDON VS. GORDON, ZIONIST FARCE, PRESENTED IN DULUTH HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

An entertainment of merit was enjoyed by a large audience of Jews and Non-Jews, in the auditorium of Central High School, Duluth, Sunday evening. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the Duluth Hebrew Institute (Talmud Torah) which netted a goodly sum, thanks to the efforts of the Arrangements Committee, and the good work of the Junior Judeans and the pupils of the Institute. The musical program consisted of Violin solos ably rendered by Morris Kohn, Piano solos by Louis Gomberg, dances and Jewish and Hebrew songs by the pupils of the Talmud Torah. Mr. Kohn, who is fifteen years old, evinced an aptitude for violin playing such as is rarely found in a boy of his age. The young man should be encouraged. Mr. Gomberg, who is not over fourteen years old, also displayed excellent pianistic qualities.

The concluding number on the program was a playlet entitled, "Gordon vs. Gordon", produced entirely by members of the Junior Judeans. The entire play was well acted and was in excellent taste. Each of the actors showed fine histrionic ability and fully deserved the ovation they received. The following made up the cast: Rudolph Segal, Marie Cohen, Nathan Cohen, Emil Wiener, Cecil Gotkin, David Sherman, Lillian Har-
