Rabbi C. David Matt and Rev. M. B. Heiman officiated. One hundred guests witnessed the ceremony, which was followed by a bridal dinner. The bride was gown in white georgette, She was attended by her cousin, Miss Frances Gluckman, as maid of honor. Miss Ida Gardner, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Sam Janas, as best man, and Mr. Nathan Smith as usher. Little Miss Edith Stein was flower girl. A reception followed in the evening, at which two hundred and fifty guests were present.

Brooks-Eisenberg

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, March 30, at Lake Street Auditorium when Miss Evelyn Sara Brooks and Mr. Frank Eisenberg were united in marriage by Dr. S. N. Deinard. The room was tastefully decorated with palms and flowers—the guests being seated on either side of a pathway to the "Chupah."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Harry Brooks.

The flower girls were Miss Evelyn Weinstein, Miss Braza Brand and Miss Ruth Kaufman.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marion Cohen, Miss Mernette Cooperman, Sophie Rosenbloom and Dora Eisenstadt. The Maid of Honor was the bride's sister, Miss Florence Brooks. Mrs. J. I. Sussman acted as matron of honor.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white satin and tulle—made bodice style, caught with lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. A court train four yards long added an unusual touch to the effect. Her bouquet was made up of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

The ushers were Mr. William Brooks, Dr. Fiske Brooks—uncles of the bride, Albert Brooks, brother of the bride and Dr. J. V. Birnberg, Mr.

Meyer E. Eisenberg, brother of the groom, was best man.

Among the 350 guests present were the following from out of town: Mrs. Herman Weiner, Sag Harbor, New York; Mrs. Esther Brooks, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kaufman, St. Cloud, Minn.

After the ceremony a reception was held. The couple will reside at Spruce Villa at 1365 Spruce Place.
