

Hebrew Women Start Drive for Members

At the reorganization meeting of the Sisterhood of the Hebrew Institute, Mrs. Ida Cook, in recognition of the work she has been doing for the institution, was elected unanimously honorary president for life. Mrs. A. Davidson was elected president; Mrs. J. A. Kohn, vice president; Mrs. J. Rosenstein, financial secretary and Mrs. Danetko, treasurer. Mrs. Friss, Mrs. H. Y. Josephs, Mrs. M. Cook, Mrs. I. B. Aaron, and Mrs. M. D. Nides were appointed trustees. The following were elected as a membership committee: Mrs. M. D. Nides, chairman; Mrs. H. Y. Joseph, chairman of program committee; Mrs. Lyle Oreck, chairman of social committee, and Rabbi Israel Lebendiger, chairman of publicity. A membership drive was started, and activities for the summer were discussed. The next meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the public library club room.

Chicago is to have a woman assistant district attorney.
