

City In Tabloid

Bentley to New York.

J. H. Bentley, superintendent of school, has gone to New York on a business trip.

Hotel Kitchen Damaged.

The kitchen of Hotel Holland, Fifth avenue West and Superior street, was slightly damaged at 8 p. m. yesterday when a pan of grease standing on the range burst into flame.

Former Welfare Clerk Ill.

Andrew West, formerly employed as a clerk in the office of Frank Hicks, welfare department manager, is seriously ill at a Minneapolis hospital and may die according to a message received here yesterday by Mr. Hicks.

Mesberg Estate $41,575.

George Mesberg of Eveleth, who died Oct. 12, age 39, left an estate valued at $41,575 according to a petition for administration filed in probate court yesterday. The heirs named are the widow, Clara, a daughter, Jean, and two sons, Bernard and Harold.

Legion Offers 15 Jobs.

A call for eight expert sheet metal workers, six plasterers and one mill wright was issued yesterday by the Duluth American Legion headquarters, 312 West Superior street. Men of these trades now out of employment are asked to report at the Legion office.

Attorney to Speak.

G. G. Glick, attorney, will deliver the principal address at the Duluth Christian Endeavor District banquet at the First Presbyterian church tonight. The subject of his address will be: "Slaves of Tradition."

Liquor Charges Quashed.

Charges of manufacturing intoxicating liquor against John Dumochell, Fred Beautler and Nick Blotti were dismissed in municipal court yesterday.

Gun-Toter Pays Fine.

Thomas D. Regas charged with carrying concealed weapons was found guilty in municipal court yesterday and paid a fine of $52 including court costs.

'Farmed' on Larceny Charge.

Alex Maresky was found guilty of a petty larceny charge upon arraignment in municipal court yesterday and was committed to the work farm for 12 days.

Woman Convicted, Pays Fine.

Genevieve McClelland was found guilty of drunkenness and disorderly conduct upon arraignment in municipal court yesterday. She was fined $10 and costs.

Willson Case Continued.

Harry Willson, charged with using language tending to provoke assault, received a continuance of his case until Wednesday, upon arraignment in municipal court yesterday.

Charity Directors to Elect.

The newly elected directors of the Associated Charities will meet at the Commercial club Monday for the election of officers. The present officers are Dr. A. N. Collins, president; Mrs. E. C. Congdon, vice president; George Ingersoll, treasurer, and C. G. Durgin, executive secretary.

Gilpin Relieves Martin.

Judge W. S. Gilpin of the St. Louis county probate court will preside at probate court sessions at Two Harbors today, in place of Judge Thomas Martin, who is ill.

Child Case to Jury.

The trial of Albert Sutherland, charged with the violation of the illegitimate child law, will go to the jury today. The case has been on trial in Judge H. A. Dancer's division of district court.

Four Deny Liquor Charge.

William Pike, Alice Pike, Charles Schultz and Gust Beck, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, pleaded not guilty in municipal court yesterday. Their hearings were set for Thursday. William Pike is being held at headquarters without charge for the federal authorities. Alice Pike, Schultz and Beck were released on $200 bail each.

Basement Plans Examined.

Construction of the basement for the proposed Second Presbyterian church between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh avenues West and Second street at a cost of $20,000 is now being planned. Plans for this unit of the edifice are being examined by the building inspector's department with a view of granting a permit. The department was informed that the balance of the structure would be completed in the spring.

Liquor Jury Drawn.

A jury was drawn in Judge Bert Fessler's division of district court yesterday to try Mike and George Kanyalo, charged with the violation of the liquor laws. The men are alleged to have transported liquor, July 7.

Motorists' Case Deferred.

William Fitzimmler charged with driving his automobile while intoxicated received a continuance of his case until 2 p. m. Tuesday in municipal court yesterday. Bail was fixed at $200.

Police Make Liquor Haul.

A 10-gallon still was seized, 10 gallons of moonshine and five barrels of mash destroyed and Dominick Defazio, age 53, 1106 West Third street was arrested yesterday and charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor. The raid was made by Lieut. E. H. Barber and Sergt. A. V. Youngberg. The still was set up ready for operation. Defazio will be arraigned in municipal court today.

Fare Reduced for Legion.

A special fare of one-cent a mile has been made for American Legion members, their wives, or widows of soldiers who plan to attend the National convention at Kansas City, Oct. 30 and 31. The fare certificates which entitles the holder to the special rate, have been received at the Legion office here.

League Elects Duluth Woman.

Mrs. R. M. Jameson of this city was elected a member of the board of directors of the Minnesota League of Women Voters at the state convention which closed yesterday at Minneapolis.

Rabbi to Give Sermon.

"The Significance of the Tabernacles" is the subject of a sermon to be given tonight by Rabbi Israel Lebendinger at the Hebrew institute. Tomorrow Rabbi Lebendinger will talk in Yiddish on "The Optimism of Judaism," at Adas Israel synagogue. Monday morning he will speak at the institute. His topic is, "The Immortality of the Soul."

Drive for Tourist Fund

The annual drive for funds to encourage tourists to come to Minnesota will begin in Duluth at once, Senator Patrick H. McGary of Walker, Minn., president of the Ten Thousand Lakes association, said yesterday. The quota for Duluth has been set at $1,500.