DISTRICT CHAIRMEN of the Twentieth Century club have been actively engaged in the distribution of tickets for the reading of "The Servant in the House" which J. Hooker Wright, is to give at the high school assembly hall Tuesday night for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the club. Among the chairmen who have done this work are Mrs. Taylor of West Duluth; Mrs. Rowe of Morgan Park, Mrs. Saksonoff of Riverside and Mrs. Holland of the Eastern part of the city.

SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE, which is so much in demand elsewhere, is to be the vogue here next month when the Temple Aid society will present the Temple Aid Follies in the ballroom of the Spalding hotel on the night of Nov. 14. Mrs. Blumenthal is chairman of the committee under whose direction a group of the prominent younger girls and men are rehearsing what is said to be a most unusual entertainment.
