

City in Tabloid

---

Shartel to Deputies' Meeting.

Joseph Shartel, deputy collector of internal revenue in charge of the Duluth office, left last night for St. Paul to attend a meeting of 50 deputies from all parts of the state where they will receive instructions from L. M. Willicuts, state collector, concerning the income tax drive, which begins Oct. 30.

---

Publicity Report Due.

The annual report of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club will be read to the members today by Ernest Huber, publicity director. It will then be submitted to the board of directors at the annual meeting, Oct. 18.

---

Guests at Reception.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Parish and Rev. and Mrs. Thomas B. Shorts will be guests of honor tonight at a reception at the Grace Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Parish, who has accepted another call, will be succeeded by Rev. Mr. Shorts. Mesdames A. J. Mulligan, O. B. Paine, J. W. Preston and Messrs. F. J. Mooney, Roy Clark and Clyde Sesline are in charge of arrangements.

---

"Let's Go" Banquet at "Y."

Activities of the Y. M. C. A. for the year will be outlined at the "Let's Go Dinner" at the "Y" Thursday night. Frank Crassweller, member of the school board, will be the toastmaster. Bentley P. Neff will give the principal address.

---

Jewish New Year Observance.

The observation of the Jewish New Year began at the Adas Israel synagogue and Duluth Hebrew Institute last night. Morning and evening services will be held today and tomorrow. Rabbi Lebendiger will preach this morning on the "Significance of the New Year." Tomorrow morning his topic will be "Life Tragedies."

---

Floral Company Purchased.

J. J. Le Borious, florist, has purchased the Alpha Floral company formerly the retail store of the Seckins Floral company, according to an announcement made yesterday. Mr. Le Borious has been in the floral business for 26 years.

---

Busch Trial Continues.

Trial of the action of the state against Adolph Busch will be continued this morning before Judge Bert Fessler in district court. Busch was indicted on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. He is accused of being implicated in the theft of an automobile belonging to Charles Hallock.