Bankman Re-Elected Virginia Zionist Head Virginia Oct. 31.—(Special.)—B. Bankman, prominent merchant, was re-elected president of the Virginia Zioniat organization last night. I Cohen was elected vice president; Leo Lieberman, treasurer; and Alexandra Kautman, secretary. The directors elected were; David Segal, Mrs. Ben Milavetz, Harry Cohen and J. T. Rutz.

It is the intension of the order to be more active during the coming winter, co-operating closely with the home order to attain the aims of the national Zionistic movement.

The roster contains the names of the roster contains the names of the great majority of Virginia Laws national Zionistic movement.

The roster contains the names of the great majority of Virginia Jews and is considered the largest and most active on the range. Several prominent speakers in the Zionist world will be brought to Virginia and committees in charge are ing several social activities.