

CASS LAKE.

News Tribune Correspondence:

CASS LAKE, Nov. 22—At a meeting of the village council held on Monday evening, Dr. Hanley resigned his position as health officer and Dr. Whetstone, of Argyle, was appointed to the office. It is understood that Dr. Whetstone will move here in the very near future and make Cass Lake his home.

Chris Burns went to Bemidji on business Monday, returning to Cass Lake on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Walker and son Howard were visitors at Walker on Tuesday.

The following boarded the train for Walker Tuesday morning, all having business to transact before Judge McClenahan, in district court: Roland H. Hartley, Fred W. Smith, M. C. Gannon and G. L. Ritchie.

Sam Ellis was over from Blackduck on Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Chamberlain went to Farley Monday evening to summon a witness to appear before the coroner's inquest held here Tuesday over the remains of Ira Reynolds.

William English, the coupler for the Bemidji champion hose team, passed through Cass Lake on Monday morning. Mr. English is going "on the road" with a show, and will not return till next spring.

H. F. Young and wife left on Sunday last for Duluth, where they have visited during the past week. They returned the previous Friday evening from a visit of several weeks with relatives at Minneapolis.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was that at the home of Mrs. James Cardie, on Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Madge Trumble of Blue Earth, a sister of Mrs. Cardie, and who is here on a visit. Invitations had been issued, and a number of the young ladies of the village were in attendance, including the following: Misses Allen, Finke, Rodwell, Drysdale, Thompson, Tuttle, Gardner, Rooney, Finnegan, Hansen, Miller, Scott, Phelps, and Ella and Rae Johnson. The flower game was the principal event of the evening, during the playing of which frappe was served. After the conclusion of the game, delightful refreshments were served.

Guoert Hallenback, the popular barber at Sam Hatfield's tonsorial parlors, was at Walker on Monday, procuring some furniture which Mr. Hatfield had purchased there.

W. Hayes, representing the St. Paul Fire & Marine Insurance Co., was in Cass Lake on Wednesday, conferring with H. E. Reed, local agent for that company.

P. H. Kennedy went to East Grand Forks on Wednesday.

Mrs. Alvin Frost has been at Bemidji during the past week, where she attended the Catholic fair being held there.

William Hellin and wife left on Wednesday for Minneapolis, where Mr. Hellin's parents reside. Mrs. Hellin will visit in the Flour city for some time, while her husband will go to Scanlon, where he has accepted a position as head sawyer in the new Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company's mill which he will hold during the winter.

C. C. Doty, one of the proprietors of the Park Rapids Clipper, accompanied by his wife, passed through Cass Lake Wednesday morning, enroute to the Rapids from Bemadji, where he had been visiting with relatives for several days. It is said that Mr. Doty will dispose of his interest in the Clipper within a few days, and enter into other work more lucrative than the thankless, arduous task of publishing a country newspaper.

J. E. Johnson had business in district court which necessitated a trip to Walker on Wednesday.

Ed C. Wertz returned on Saturday evening from Melrose, where he has been during the past month building a new house for a resident of that place.

George H. Spielman and wife left on Wednesday morning for Minneapolis, where they will reside during this winter.

Joseph and William Wallace returned to William's claim, ten miles west of Akeley. They had with them a party of hunters from St. Paul. One deer and about two dozen partridges was the extent of the game secured by the party.

Dr. Rodwell, the physician in charge of the Cass Lake Indians, returned on Saturday evening from a trip to Altkin and other points in that vicinity, where he went to investigate a report that there was considerable smallpox among the Indians. The doctor found one case of smallpox and quarantined the patient, leaving directions for his proper care.

E. M. Miller and wife, of Devils Lake, spent Sunday in Cass Lake, leaving on Monday morning for Minneapolis.

Hugh McErvin was over from Grand Rapids on Sunday.

J. F. Moore of Crookston, traveling auditor of the Great Northern railway, was a visitor in Cass Lake the first of the week.

M. Cass, of Walker, was in Cass Lake on Tuesday buying a quantity of furs from local parties.

J. T. Garnder, L. H. Burns and H. T. Allerton returned on Tuesday from a hunting trip of several days on Steamboat river.